Your company doesn't employ its own security guards. It has contracted out the job to Dodge Security Services who have installed surveillance equipment and provide security services. Lately, a few security incidents have been reported. Your company is totally dissatisfied with the security service being provided as some of the surveillance equipment has been malfunctioning and their staff have been irresponsible. Write a letter of complaint telling Dodge Security Services that if the problems continue, you will terminate the contract with them. (Maximum of 100 words)
